JORHAT DAY

(23.06.2025)

The “Cultural Capital of Assam”, Jorhat is the second largest city in Assam after Guwahati. Jorhat is known in Assam for its rich culture and tradition, education centres and its warm hearted people. The gateway to Upper Assam, Jorhat is remembered for the very famous Kaziranga National Park and the Majuli island, the largest river island in the world.

“Jorhat” the name in Assamese means a combination of two words- ‘jor’ meaning joint and ‘haat’ meaning a market. And hence Jorhat meaning “two markets”. The two markets here are “Chowkihaat” and “Macharhaat”, which has been in existence here since the 18th century and are situated along the banks of the river Bhogdoi.

NSS Unit Mariani College, Mariani organised Jorhat Day to recapitulate the history of Jorhat. The programme started at around 10:30am. All the students of Mariani college were present in this programme. Our respected IQAC officer Mr.Bonomali Baori , our faculty member Dr Alimpiya Bordoloi mam, respected H.O.D deliver a speech on the history, heritage of Jorhat. Then we held essay competition on the topic MOROMOR BIKASITA JORHAT in the honour of Jorhat day. The poem was very beautifully recited by the students and inspired them for their performance. At last the programme successfully ended at 11:30 am with vote of thanks by our faculty member Achinta Saikia.
